

TEMPORARY PRINCIPAL INVESTIGATOR STATUS REQUEST

The privilege to act as a Principal Investigator (PI) or a Co-Principal Investigator (Co-PI) on an externally funded project is conferred upon Temple University faculty members and other staff as specified in the Temple University Project Director/Principal Investigator Eligibility Policy. Non-tenured, non-tenure track faculty and other staff not specified in the policy may request to be considered for eligibility. These requests will be considered on a case by case basis.

To be considered for temporary Principal Investigator status, please provide information requested below, including signature of PI candidate and respective Dean, and submit to your staff contact in the Office of Temple Research Administration (TRA). This approval must be requested and approved prior to submission of a research proposal or related material to TRA.

Name of Candidate for PI Status:

Department/Division:

School/College:

Current Appointment: % Time:

Title Requested: Principal Investigator Co-Principal Investigator % Time:

Funding Source/Agency:

Project title(s):

Project Period (s): From To

Provide a brief explanation for requesting PI Status (CV attached):

Requested by:

Candidate Signature

Dean of College/School Signature

Approved by:

Senior Vice Provost for Research and Graduate Education

Principal Investigator Responsibility: A Principal Investigator or Project Director leads a project or program and accepts overall responsibility for its direction, the financial oversight of the award, and compliance with the terms and conditions of the award and relevant Temple University and sponsor policies.

Withdrawal of PI status: An individual's status as PI may be withdrawn for just cause. Such a decision may be appealed to the Senior Vice Provost for Research and Graduate Education.